

*1995 Lunchtime Learning Series
&
The AARP Research Seminar Series
PRESENTS*

*Husbands and Wives
in Retirement:
Two Different Worlds*

*THURSDAY, June 1, 1995
Noon – 1:30 p.m.
Learning Center B2-120*

We invite you to attend this lively and entertaining discussion on marital relationships in the retirement years, featuring Dr. Gail Eisen. Dr. Eisen is a researcher, consultant, and an expert in the areas of psychology of aging, older workforce issues, and the psycho-social aspects of the retirement experience.

Beverages and dessert will be served.

"Work: the vital link" is the slogan of WIEI, the AARP Work Issues Education Initiative. WIEI is an Association-wide effort to educate AARP's volunteer leaders and staff on emerging work issues. The Initiative recognizes that work is the vital link for all Americans to lifelong economic security through Social Security, pensions, personal savings, and health care.