

MEET OUR TEACHERS

Gail Eisen, Ph.D.

Gail has been developing innovative courses in the social sciences and humanities for 15 years, both in US universities and for colleges in Kenya, Bulgaria, Egypt, Israel and India. Her classes blend wide-ranging content with lively discussion and exchange, and her psychology-themed courses are approved for CEUs for both clinical counselors and healthcare professionals. Gail's background includes a Fulbright Award for Teaching, a Rotary Teaching Exchange to India, and seminars for Fortune 500 companies, non-profit and community groups and clinical counseling agencies.

Fun Fact:

Gail has traveled in 36 countries to date, has taught in 7 countries and has worked with students ranging in age from 7 to 97.

Did you know?

All of Gail's classes are infused with cross-cultural content and with dynamic opportunities for students to apply course concepts to their personal and professional lives.